

HAGERSTOWN

Each bicycle, when registered, shall be given a registration number. Said registration number shall become the permanent number assigned to that particular bicycle for and during the duration of the lifetime of the bicycle.

It shall not be necessary for the owner to renew said registration or obtain a new identification number on a periodic basis. There shall be no fees charged for said identification number.

Section 9-7. Transfer of Ownership.

In the event that a bicycle is transferred from one person to another person, said transfer shall be reported to the Police Department in accordance with the rules and regulations then in force, as promulgated by the administrative officer as designated in this Ordinance. There shall be no charge made for the transfer of the registration and ownership of said bicycle.

Section 9-8. Defacing, Alteration or removal of identification number.

It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly remove or cause to be removed, to change or caused to be changed, or to mutilate or cause to be mutilated, or to alter or caused to be altered, or defaced or cause to be defaced, or falsify or cause to be falsified any identification number affixed to any bicycle.

Section 9-9. Selling, Buying and Receiving.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to buy, receive, possess, sell or dispose of a bicycle knowing that the identification number of said bicycle has been removed, changed, mutilated, altered, defaced or falsified.

Section 9-10. Impounding of Bicycles and Disposition.

Any bicycle found to be in violation of this Ordinance shall be impounded by the Police Department and removed from the public thoroughfares of the City. The Police Department shall keep such bicycle impounded until the owner shall have obtained for said bicycle the proper identification number through proper registration.

No impounding fee shall be charged for the impounding of such bicycle.

In the event that any bicycles are located or turned into the Police Department that have been abandoned within the City of Hagerstown, the Police Department
